

Does sound travel better through air or water?

Sound waves can travel far through water. Sounds are louder and clearer when they travel through water. Sounds can be amplified with tubes and megaphones.

Which state of matter does sound travel best through?

Sound travels best through solids such as wood and string. The particles in solids are closer together, allowing sound to travel better.