

- Humus is made of decaying plants and animals
- Soil is a mixture of humus and different kinds of material
- You can separate the parts of soil by mixing it with water in a vial, shaking it, and letting it sit overnight

- Soils can be different colors
- Soils can be different textures
- Different kinds and amounts of plants grow in different soils

- Soils have different amounts of humus and different kinds of earth materials
- Soils contain some of the same ingredients.