

What happens when water is mixed with earth materials?

Runoff happens when water doesn't soak into materials like gravel. Groundwater happens when water soaks into materials like soil. Runoff and groundwater are both forms of collection.

How does a water wheel work?

A waterwheel is an axle with blades that are pushed by flowing or falling water. The flow of water is strong enough to make objects move.